

SAINT MARY'S COLLEGE

Courses that satisfy General Education Requirements

ANTHROPOLOGY – 141, 142RM, 253, 254

ART – any entry-level studio course 250 or below, 266, and 251RM, 252RM taken in Rome

BIOLOGY – 105-106 usually; 153-154 is an option. Spring semester courses can be taken before fall semester courses.

CHEMISTRY – 101-102 usually; CHEM 118 or CHEM 121, 122 are also options.

COMMUNICATION – 103 or 210

DANCE – 240, 241

ECONOMICS – 151, 251 or 252

ENGLISH – any course above 103 except 266, 304, 305, and 367. 221, 275, and 361 only as add'l designated course.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES – 161 as add'l designated course.

HISTORY – 101, 102, 103, 104, 201, 202; higher-level courses can be used as add'l designated course.

HUMANISTIC STUDIES – 103, 197, 203, 212, 261RM, 292, or upper level.

INTERCULTURAL STUDIES – 201

MATHEMATICS – Any course except MATH 100. Several major departments require specific mathematics courses, but students can be advised by the mathematics department to enroll in courses that are appropriate to their interest and ability.

MODERN LANGUAGE – Two semesters of the same language at the appropriate level. The requirement is normally satisfied by one of the following:

- For students starting a new language: MLAR, MLCH, MLFR, MLGR, MLIT, or MLSP 101-102. Students may not receive credit for the introductory course in a language (101-102) if they have taken that language in high school. (continued)
- For students continuing a language they have already studied:
 - MLFR, MLGR, or MLSP 105-106 for students with Placement score below 45
 - MLFR, MLGR, or MLSP 111-112 for students with Placement score 45 or above

MUSIC – 181, 241, 242, or 275; a combination of lessons or ensembles will NOT satisfy a General Ed. requirement

PHILOSOPHY – 110; higher-level courses may be used as add'l designated course.

PHYSICS – 101-102, 103-104 generally; higher-level sequences are options for students who have a background in calculus.

POLITICAL SCIENCE – 151, 152, 160, 203RM

PSYCHOLOGY - 156

RELIGIOUS STUDIES – All first year students must take RLST 101. All sophomores must take a course numbered 200-299. Any other student with a legitimate reason for not taking these courses at the designated time must secure permissions from the First Year Studies Office/ Academic Affairs Office, 121 Le Mans Hall (not departmental advisor). A student may choose a Notre Dame course to satisfy the second course requirement with approval of the Chair of Religious Studies.

SOCIAL WORK - 235

SOCIOLOGY – 153, 203, 257

THEATRE – 135, 205, 265

WOMEN'S STUDIES – 207