

May 1, 2009 Volume III

Announcements

Congratulations class of 2009! We wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors!

Please return all checked out books and movies.

Multicultural Recognition Ceremony

Join us for the Multicultural Recognition Ceremony for the Class of 2009!

Guest Speaker: Rocio Guzman '00

Saturday, May 2, 5:00 p.m. at Dalloway's

Events

May 2

The annual Spring Art Walk is always the first Saturday in May. This year, eight galleries in downtown South Bend will open their doors. The event is produced by Kathy Reddy White, owner of Circa Arts Gallery. All galleries represent local artists. Experience art, music, food and fun on the Colfax Arts Corridor as well as the Lincoln Way West Arts Corridor.

May 2

Sleeping Beauty Ballet: Come and be inspired by the magic of Sleeping Beauty, one of the oldest and best-loved ballets. Created in 1890 and premiered in Russia, it features the choreography of Marius Petipa and the music of Tchaikovsky. The Conservatory of Dance Company ballets include the Company members plus students from the Conservatory of Dance Studio and students from the Outreach Program at Perley School. Let yourself be awed by the dancers, music, costumes and scenery and be transported to a place of wonder.

Currently-May 3

Rashomon: Stylish, graceful, and thought-provoking, here's a play quite unlike any you may have ever seen! When a Samurai is murdered and his wife assaulted by a roving bandit, a beguiling mystery begins to unfold. Though the bandit is quickly apprehended and brought to trial, the truth proves far more illusive, as wildly contradictory versions of what happened are brought to light. But which version contains the ultimate truth? Based on Japanese folk tales, a mesmerizing play packed with relentless suspense.

